Each spring at the President's Reception, Water Education Colorado gathers its community of peers and supporters to celebrate the value of water and water education while recognizing exemplary individuals.

The Diane Hoppe Leadership Award is presented to a Coloradan who is highly regarded among peers, has made extraordinary lifetime contributions to Colorado water, and has demonstrated sincere commitment to supporting water education. The Emerging Leader Award honors a young Colorado professional who has strengthened and improved water knowledge and partnerships throughout the state of Colorado. Our 2019 award recipients will be Jennifer Pitt, National Audubon Society, and Celene Hawkins, The Nature Conservancy!

Join us for a night of celebration, networking, and awards as we honor water leadership and raise money for water education in Colorado at one of the best water events of the year!

Tickets are available at $125 per person for members, and $135 per person for non-members. Full 8-person tables are also available for purchase and/or sponsorship.
