

The Fork Not Taken: A Two Forks Retrospective

March 8, 2019
History Colorado Center

Program

- 7:30am Registration and Continental Breakfast
- 8:00am Welcome
Jayla Poppleton, Executive Director, Water Education Colorado
- 8:05am Setting the Stage
Tom Cech, Co-Director, One World One Water Center
- 8:20am First panel discussion: NEPA, the environmental opposition to Two Forks, and other factors that eventually factored into the veto.
Moderated by Mark Obmascik, author and former reporter at the Denver Post
- Bill Reilly, former EPA Administrator
 - LaJuana Wilcher, former EPA Assistant Administrator for Water
 - Dave Little, former Denver Water Director of Planning
 - Dan Luecke, former Environmental Defense Fund Rocky Mountain Office Director
 - Dave Weiman, Independent Lobbyist
- 10:00am Break

10:15am Second panel discussion: The post-Two Forks response in Denver and its suburbs, leading up to modern-era successes and controversies.

Moderated by Jerd Smith, Fresh Water News Editor at Water Education Colorado

- Jim Lochhead, Denver Water CEO
- Lisa Darling, South Metro Water Supply Authority Executive Director
- David Nickum, Colorado Trout Unlimited Executive Director
- Lurline Curran, former Grand County manager
- Doug Benevento, EPA Region 8 Regional Administrator

11:50am Wrap Up and Conclusion
Tom Cech, Co-Director, One World One Water Center

12:00pm Adjourn